

WEEKEND ITINERARY: THE PENNSYLVANIA ENDLESS MOUNTAINS

The Endless Mountain region is a must-visit for any outdoor lover in search of adventure! Located in northeastern PA, the Endless Mountains has an abundance of natural waterfalls, peaceful lakes, scenic vistas, and beautiful mountains. This 4-day, 3-night itinerary explores the waterfalls of Ricketts Glen State Park and the scenic vistas of Worlds End State Park.

DAY	ACTIVITY	OVERNIGHT
1	Arrive to Ricketts Glen State Park <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Drive to Ricketts Glen State Park (2.5 hours from Philadelphia, 4 hours from Pittsburgh).• Get settled into your campsite, cook dinner, and relax.	Ricketts Glen State Park Campground
2	Full day in Ricketts Glen State Park <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Hike the Falls Trail System. This trail is within the Glens Natural Area and passes 21 waterfalls. Trail guide available here.• Go swimming or boating on Lake Jean. Kayak, paddleboard, and rowboat rentals are available in the summer months.	Ricketts Glen State Park Campground
3	Arrive to Worlds End State Park <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Drive to Worlds End State Park (30 minutes).• Hike the High Rock Trail, Worlds End Trail, and/or Butternut Trail.• Drive to the Loyalsock Canyon Vista overlook.	Worlds End State Park Campground
4	Drive home

